Grade 2 Class Teacher (Maternity Cover)

Start date: Apr 2021

Contract type: Temporary - Maternity Cover

An inspiring initiative by one of the most prominent UAE families - Al Ghurair, Dar Al Marefa School is a top-ranked and widely recognised bilingual international Baccalaureate® school in Dubai, with a broader academic vision - to make a significant contribution to the next generation of the UAE by partnering with parents, friends and the local community.

Dar Al Marefa is looking for a Grade 2 Class Teacher on a temporary contract for a maternity cover. The PYP Class Teacher will plan and deliver lessons to ensure outstanding student learning through individual, small group and in-class teaching methods in line with IB PYP curriculum framework. The teacher will place emphasis on providing the students with well-resourced lessons and promote every child's right to learn by creating a warm but challenging environment for the children. The ideal applicant will possess a kind and personable nature and engaging personality.

Requirements:

- Degree in Primary Education or any other relevant subjects/fields;
- Valid American Teaching License, PGCE with UK Qualified Teachers Status, Bachelors of Education or SACE;
- Minimum 3 years proven teaching experience essential; ideally within an IB school;
- Professional commitment to the successful implementation of an enriched IB/PYP curriculum;
- High level of IT skills;
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills to work closely with students, parent and peers;
- Visa status - on spouse/parent sponsorship - no visa will be provided.

Application Process:

To apply please send in your covering letter and detailed CV with the subject: "Application for Temporary Grade 2 Class Teacher" to careers.dms@daralmarefa.ae. The last date for applications is 15th March 2021. All appointments are subject to an interview, successful references, and background checks.
